

Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy establishes the terms under which SignalByte uses and protects the information provided by its users when using its website and related services. This company is committed to the security of its users' data. When we ask you to fill in the fields of personal information by which you may be identified, we do ensure that it will only be used in accordance with the terms of this document.

Collection of Information

We may collect personal information in various ways, including but not limited to when users visit our site, register on it, place an order, fill out a form, and in connection with other activities, services, features, or resources we make available on our site. Users may be asked, as appropriate, for name, email address, postal address, phone number. Users may, however, visit our site anonymously. We will collect personal information from users only if they voluntarily submit it. Users can always refuse to provide personal information, except that this may prevent them from engaging in certain site-related activities.

Use of Collected Information

Our website may collect and use users' personal information for the following purposes:

To improve customer service: The information you provide helps us respond to your customer service requests more efficiently.

To personalize user experience: We may use the information in the aggregate to understand how our users as a group use the services and resources provided on our site.

To process payments: We may use the information provided by users when placing an order only to provide the service requested. We do not share this information with third parties except to the extent necessary to provide the service.

To send periodic emails: We may use the email address to send user information and updates related to their order. It may also be used to respond to their inquiries, questions, and/or other requests. If the user decides to opt-in to our mailing list, they will receive emails that may include company news, updates, product or service information, etc. If at any time the user would like to unsubscribe from receiving future emails, we include detailed unsubscribe instructions at the bottom of each email.

User Information Protection

We adopt appropriate data collection, storage, and processing practices and security measures to protect against unauthorized access, alteration, disclosure, or destruction of your personal information, username, password, transaction information, and data stored on our site.

Sharing Your Personal Information

We do not sell, trade, or transfer in any way your personal information to third parties without your consent, except when necessary to provide you with our services or to comply with applicable laws.

Security of Personal Information

We implement technical, administrative, and physical security measures to protect personal information against unauthorized access, loss, misuse, or disclosure.

Cookies and Similar Technologies

We use cookies and similar technologies to enhance your experience on our website and understand how you use it. You can set your browser to refuse all cookies or to indicate when cookies are being sent.

Updates to the Privacy Policy

SignalByte has the discretion to update this privacy policy at any time. When we do, we will revise the updated date at the bottom of this page. We encourage users to frequently check this page for any changes and to stay informed about how we are helping to protect the personal information we collect. You acknowledge and agree that it is your responsibility to review this privacy policy periodically and become aware of modifications.

Consent

By using our website and our services, you agree to the terms of this Privacy Policy and give us your consent to collect, use, and disclose your personal information in accordance with the terms set out in this policy.
